Support Requested

Nonprofit leaders were asked what types of funding would most help their organization over the next 3-5 years. They were also asked where training, technical assistance, or targeted funding, would be applied to most strengthen their organizations over the next 3-5 years. The charts below provide a summary of the answers to these questions. The percentages indicate the percent of total respondents who selected a given response. Respondents could select more than one response to each question, so the percentages add up to more than 100%.

What types of financial support would most strengthen your organization over the next 3–5 years? (Select up to 2)

Where would training, technical assistance, or targeted funding most strengthen your organization over the next 3-5 years? (Select up 3)
