Women in Philanthropy 2016 Proposal Guidelines

Administered by Central Carolina Community Foundation

Women In Philanthropy is accepting proposals from non-profit organizations in Calhoun, Fairfield, Lexington, Newberry, Orangeburg and/or Richland counties that support women and/or children. Applicants may request up to $10,000 and must demonstrate how the requested funds will improve organization operations, service delivery, and/or their client population. Applications addressing financial stability are of particular interest to Women In Philanthropy as its signature issue.

Preliminary review of all applications will occur by the Women In Philanthropy Grants Committee to select up to 10 finalists. Applicants not selected as finalists will be notified of their status, and applicants selected as finalists also will be notified of their status to coordinate a site visit by the Women In Philanthropy Grants Committee from September 13-October 3, 2016. Awards will be announced by November 1, 2016, and grantees will be invited to join Women In Philanthropy at its Annual Leadership Breakfast in December 2016 (date to be determined) to be acknowledged and receive the funds. The deadline for applications is 5:00 p.m. on August 31, 2016.

The application should address:

- The needs of the community to be addressed, how the project will support women and/or children, and describe how the proposed project will address financial stability (as applicable).
- The overall goal and objectives of the project.
- Description of planned activities for the project.
- Names of organizations, if any, you plan to partner with in order to accomplish the project.
- Outcomes you expect the project to yield and the way in which these outcomes will be measured.
- Proposed number of people served and a description of the population served. Outline of staffing structure and experience to deliver the specific program.
- Timetable for implementation.

How to Apply:
Applications must be submitted online into an online form at https://yourfoundation.wufoo.com/forms/women-in-philanthropy-2016-grants/. Emailed, mailed, or hand delivered applications will not be accepted. Application deadline is 5:00 p.m. on August 31, 2016.
