

CAPACITY BUILDING MINI-GRANTS

WHO WE ARE

Central Carolina Community Foundation, the Midlands center for philanthropy, is a nonprofit organization that links charitable people and businesses with areas of need in our community.

WHAT ARE CAPACITY BUILDING MINI-GRANTS?

Central Carolina Community Foundation will provide mini-grants to nonprofit organizations interested in improving their capacity and strengthening their sustainability, impact and success.

Central Carolina Community Foundation is working to help build sustainability for nonprofit organizations in the Midlands. Capacity Building grants support this endeavor by providing funds that will allow nonprofits to carry out their missions more effectively. The Foundation aims to assist organizations with organizational and financial stability, program quality, and growth.

WHAT WE FUND

The Community Foundation is looking to fund grants that will:

- Strengthen the Board of Directors and governance of the organization, through training or assistance from an expert in the field with application outlining the project deliverables.
- Assist in strategic thinking and planning for the future of the organization.
- Enable organizations to merge operations and/or programming to ensure sustainability.
- Build a plan for long-term sustainability and reliable funding streams.
- Develop the skills of the Board and staff in a specific area impacting governance or management of the organization.
- Support collaborative initiatives or efforts to enhance systemic support around a community issue.

EXAMPLES OF ELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES

Including but not limited to:

- Developing or refining organization mission, vision or goals
- Organizational assessment, evaluation of overall effectiveness, and strategic planning
- Building and diversifying revenue streams
- Developing or refining communications, marketing and outreach strategy
- Improving impact measurement tools and program evaluation capacity

EXAMPLES OF NON-ELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES

- Routine operating expenses of the organization
- Fundraising projects—including events
- Debt reduction
- Endowment or capital campaigns
- Medical research
- Individual conference registration

- Costs associated with the creation of a new nonprofit organization
- Completed projects or proposals that have begun implementation
- Grants to individuals
- Certifications or tuition fees

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Organizations must be determined as a charitable organization in good standing under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, public entities or other charitable, educational or faith-based organizations.
- Organizations must have a physical location in one of the following 11 counties in the Midlands: Calhoun, Clarendon, Fairfield, Kershaw, Lee, Lexington, Newberry, Orangeburg, Richland, Saluda and Sumter.
